Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The white cane is a simple, yet effective tool, that enables citizens with visual impairments throughout South Dakota and the nation to enjoy greater independence and freedom of movement by allowing them to navigate safely through their environment, avoiding physical barriers and hazards; and,

Whereas, The white cane is also a symbol of dignity and determination that serves as a tangible reminder that individuals who have impaired eyesight possess not only the desire but also the ability to lead full, independent, and productive lives; and,

Whereas, Established by the National Federation of the Blind, the annual observance of "White Cane Day" emphasizes the need for all citizens to be aware of the presence of disabled persons in their communities and to work together to keep the streets, highways, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and places of public accommodation, amusement, and resort safe and functional for the disabled; and,

Whereas, The 2004 celebration of "White Cane Day" provides a unique opportunity for the citizens of South Dakota to renew their commitment to eliminating physical and attitudinal barriers that continue to hinder the full participation of blind persons in our society; and,

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 15, 2004, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
